Author Talk: K. L. Montgomery

Thursday, July 27, 7:00 PM

K.L. Montgomery, author of Green Castles, Fat Girl, and Given to Fly, will be visiting PCPL for author's talk and book signing! Montgomery is a romance and women's fiction author who grew up in Greencastle, Indiana. After a ten-year career as a research librarian that began at DePauw University, she now writes novels when she's not tied up with her full-time job in higher education and part-time job as a social media manager. K.L. resides in Georgetown, Delaware, with her husband, Mike and their four felines.

Planning

New Planning sessions have been added to the calendar! If you missed the opportunity to help us Build a Better World through planning in June, you can join us every Monday in July! Planning is the process of crocheting recycled plastic bags into mats for the homeless. PCPL is excited to be partnering with the Creative Change Project in Indianapolis for this program. Jo MacPhail will be leading the efforts and providing instruction along the way.
