2018 Summer Reading Program!

Summer Reading is happening all month long at the library! Be sure to check out all of our Summer Reading activities and download your activity sheets on our website at PCPL21.org.

Libraries Rock!
A Benefit to Support PALS
Friday, July 13, 6:00 PM

Join us for a celebration to raise money for the Putnam Adult Literacy Services. Poet Abby Chew will be there to read from her new book, A Bear Approaches from the Sky. Local musicians Ron Dye and Gus Moon will entertain us with their musical stylings. And we’ll close out the night with a performance by the Indianapolis band Pravada. There will also be food trucks, a beer garden, and general fun for all! Admission is only $5.00, so be sure to mark your calendars today!

End of Summer Reading Party
Thursday, July 26, 12:00 PM

We’re throwing a party to celebrate all the fun we’ve had participating in the Summer Reading Program! Join us at 12:00 PM for an Ice Cream Party! You can build your own ice cream sundae from our sundae bar. Then stay to see Professor Steve’s Super Sonic Sound Show and learn the science behind the music we all love to listen to!

The library will be CLOSED
Wednesday, July 4th in honor of Independence Day
The Art of the Word and Book
Tuesday, July 10, 5:00 PM - Watercolor
Tuesday, July 24, 6:00 PM - Monotype Printing
Tuesday, July 31, 6:00 PM - Haiku

The Art of the Word and Book series, sponsored by the Greencastle Arts Council, continues throughout the month of June. This month’s classes include haiku, monotype printing, and watercolor. You can find all of the details, including dates, cost, and registration information, on our website at PCPL21.org.

Ancient Healing
